

Why should your school choose to collaborate with UMFS?

UMFS is experienced.

UMFS (United Methodist Family Services) has provided services to children and families for 110 years. Our network of services ranges from prevention to intensive treatment services. Visit us at www.umfs.org to learn more.

We have more than 30 years' experience in working with children and youth with emotional and behavioral challenges at Charterhouse School. Over the last three decades, we have developed and practiced a strengths-based approach focusing on meeting four universal developmental needs identified by the Circle of Courage™: belonging, mastery, independence, and generosity.

UMFS is effective.

Here's why you should select UMFS to provide Therapeutic Treatment Services in the Public Schools (a Medicaid-approved service) to your students:

Best Practices Program

- The Circle of Courage™
- Positive Behavior Support
- Trauma-Informed Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Skillstreaming the Elementary School Child and Adolescent
- Response Ability Pathways™ (RAP™)
- The Mandt System®
- Life Space Crisis Intervention (LSCI)

Qualified Staff

- Degreed and experienced staff
- Professionalism in dress, language, and interactions

Data-Driven

- Reduction in suspensions
- Increased attendance
- Increase time on task
- Academic progress

Customer Delight

- Effective communication
- Team-based approach – with school personnel, students, and families
- Services aligned with school philosophy and school-wide discipline approach
- Participation in Student Advisory Team meetings, child study, parent-teacher conferences, IEP meetings, faculty meetings, as needed

Staff Development

- We are ready to provide your faculty and staff with information about our treatment approach and practices in order to enhance collaboration.
- We offer free slots for two key staff from each school where we work in Life Space Crisis Intervention (LSCI), Response Ability Pathways (RAP™), and the PersonBrain Model™ offered by UMFS's Learning Institute.

See reverse side of this flyer for specific criteria for students who qualify for UMFS Therapeutic Treatment Services in the Public Schools.

Choose UMFS. Today.

For additional information, please contact Gene E. Lee, Clinical Coordinator at (804) 239-1057, glee@umfs.org, fax (804) 353-3061, UMFS, 3900 West Broad Street, Richmond, VA 23230.