Who is UMFS?

United Methodist Family Services is a cutting-edge human service agency attracting professionals who are interested in helping children, youth and families lead empowered lives.

Our mission is to touch a life and create a future through a ministry of innovative services to children, families, and communities. This is a principle that guides our every action – and it comes from our hearts as it does from our skills.

UMFS employs more than 250 staff and provides services at seven locations throughout Virginia. We have 75 volunteers and welcome student interns and externs in the areas of social work, counseling, therapeutic recreation and education. Our staff takes pride in their work and represents UMFS in 18 external human services associations.

Balancing Work and Life

As a family service organization, UMFS understands the importance of family and personal achievements. UMFS' top notch benefit package includes a generous 401k plan, vacation policy and excellent insurance options.

Enhance your career in a culture that encourages career development and offers professional coaching, training and tuition reimbursement.
